

After Trust: From Unraveling to Repair

April 20-21st, 2023

DAY 1

8.30am-9am: Coffee and light snacks

9am-9.15: Opening remarks

9.15-10.30am: Eduardo Mendieta (Penn State) “In Whiteness we Trust: On Racial Distrust and Civic Betrayal”

10.30am-11.45am: William Paris (University of Toronto) “Capitalism and the Value of Distrust”

11.45am-1pm: Lunch break

1.15pm-2.30pm: Sarah Clark Miller (Penn State) “When Self-Trust Shatters”

2.30pm-3.45pm: Esteban Marín-Ávila (Universidad Michoacana), “From default to rational trust”

3.45pm-4.15pm: Coffee break

4pm-5.30pm: Laura Specker Sullivan (Fordham University) “Climates of Distrust”

6pm-7pm: Cocktails at The Lobby Bar (100 West College Avenue)

7pm: Conference dinner at The Allen Street Grill (100 West College Avenue)

DAY 2

8.30am-9am: Coffee and light snacks

9am-10.15am: Desiree Lim (Penn State), “Solidarity Without Trust?”

10.15-11.30: Ami Harbin (Oakland University), “Learning from Fear About Trust”

11.30-1pm: Lunch break

1-2.15: Cyanne Loyle (Penn State and Peace Research Institute Oslo) and Mia Powell (Penn State), “The Legacy of Racial Violence in the US: Institutional Mechanisms for Repairing Trust”

2.15-3.30pm: Alice MacLachlan, “Civility, Protest, and Repair”